A NOTE REGARDING HOLY COMMUNION

Welcome! In the Orthodox Church, reception of the Holy Eucharist is reserved for baptized, chrismated Orthodox Christians who have prepared by prayer, fasting and a recent confession. If you are visiting from a non-Orthodox church or otherwise are not prepared to commune today, you are welcome to receive some of the unconsecrated, blessed bread which the acolytes are holding. We pray for all to be united in the Body and Blood of Christ! If you would like to learn how you can enter into communion with the Orthodox Church, please speak with our clergy.

THE EPISTLE

(For the Tenth Sunday after Pentecost)

Let Thy mercy, O Lord, be upon us. Rejoice in the Lord, O ye righteous.

The Reading from the First Epistle of St. Paul to the Corinthians.
(4:9-16)

Brethren, God has exhibited us Apostles as last of all, like men sentenced to death; because we have become a spectacle to the world, to angels and to men. We are fools for Christ's sake, but you are wise in Christ. We are weak, but you are strong. You are held in honor, but we in disrepute. To the present hour we hunger and thirst, we are ill clad and buffeted and homeless; and we labor, working with our own hands. When reviled, we bless; when persecuted, we endure; when slandered, we try to conciliate; we have become, and are now, as the refuse of the world, the off scouring of all things. I do not write this to make you ashamed, but to admonish you as my beloved children. For though you have countless guides in Christ, you do not have many fathers. For I became your father in Christ Jesus through the Gospel. I urge you, then, be imitators of me.

THE GOSPEL

(For the Tenth Sunday of Matthew)

The Reading from the Holy Gospel according to St. Matthew.
(17:14-23)

At that time, a man came up to Jesus and kneeling before Him said, "Lord, have mercy on my son, for he is an epileptic and he suffers terribly; for often he falls into the fire, and often into the water. And I brought him to Thy disciples, and they could not heal him." And Jesus answered, "O faithless and perverse generation, how long am I to be with you? How long am I to bear with you? Bring him here to me." And Jesus rebuked him, and the demon came out of him, and the boy was cured instantly. Then the disciples came to Jesus privately and said, "Why could we not cast it out?" Jesus said to them, "Because you have no faith. For truly, I say to you, if you have faith as a grain of mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, 'Move from here to there,' and it will move; and nothing will be impossible to you. This kind never comes out except by prayer and fasting." As they were traveling together through Galilee, Jesus said to them, "The Son of man is to be delivered into the hands of men, and they will kill Him, and He will rise on the third day."

SAINTS AND FEASTS OF THE DAY

A GOOD WORD

- ❖ The humble person does not criticize anyone except himself, because he knows that he does not have any appointment to judge and censure others. -- Father Philotheos Zervakos
- ❖ To be negative and critical is no good, whether it comes from the clergy or the people. Let us be at peace at all times, in whatever we do and say. The Church needs to become a holy place where God is. -- His Eminence, Metropolitan JOSEPH
- ❖ We have abandoned the easy yoke, that is, self-reproach; and we have burdened ourselves with a heavy yoke, that is, self-justification. – Abba Poemen the Great
- ❖ If you are making something, you must call to mind the Creator of all things; if you see the light, remember the Giver of it. If you put on your clothes, recall whose gift they are and thank Him who provides for your life. In short, let every action be a cause of your remembering and praising God, and lo! you will be praying without ceasing and therein your soul will always rejoice. -- St. Peter of Damascus
- ❖ Send your treasures to the heavenly storage room. Deposit your wealth in God's Bank, distributing it to the poor, the orphans and the widows, so that you can receive a million times more in the Second Coming of Christ. -- Elder Joseph the Hesychast
- ❖ As you come together in love for one another, you will draw in many other people seeking after the love with which you have been so richly blessed. -- His Eminence, Metropolitan JOSEPH
- ❖ Each parish is like a gateway to the Kingdom of Heaven. Do you desire an eternal life in Paradise? Then the road naturally leads to the Church. -- His Eminence, Metropolitan JOSEPH
- ❖ Complacency begins when we no longer see the gift of each new day, when we lose our gratitude for what we have been given. God gives us all things simply because He loves us, yet He lets us work for these things so we will appreciate them more. -- His Eminence, Metropolitan JOSEPH

SAINT HERMAN ORTHODOX BIBLE READING PLAN

Read through the Bible in one year

Daily Bible Reading Plan

This Bible reading plan is a suggestion for engaging in a dialogue with the Word of God. The plan assumes the use of an Orthodox Study Bible or a text containing a translation of the Septuagint (LXX) for the Old Testament for both additional content and reference numbers which are different in some cases from a Hebrew-based translation. The plan has dates starting September 1 (the Church New Year) but could be started any time during the year. One should start their study of the Holy Scriptures as soon as possible, regardless of the date on the calendar.

There are five sections of text for each day comprising 5 to 8 chapters of reading and an average of 160 verses. In this approach the Old Testament (excluding Psalms and the Wisdom Literature) is read through once during the year. The Psalms, Wisdom Literature, and the Epistles are read through twice during the year. The Gospels are read through four times. Unlike some other reading plans that focus on reading the entire Bible once during the year, this plan has a daily focus on Psalms, Gospels, Epistles, and Wisdom Literature (expanded beyond just Proverbs) as well as an Old Testament reading.

The daily readings can be done in one sitting. However, it may be helpful for both concentration and “spiritual dialogue” to break up the readings during the day, or to focus on one or two sections of texts for the year. Consult with your Spiritual Father. One suggestion is as follows:

Morning: Morning Prayers and then read Psalm, Gospel, Epistle

Evening: Read Old Testament and Wisdom Literature and then Evening Prayers.

“Your word is a lamp to my feet and a light to my paths.” – Psalm 118:105

Jesus said, “The words that I speak to you are spirit, and they are life.”
– John 6:63

Prayer Before Reading Holy Scripture

Illumine our hearts, O Master who lovest mankind, with the pure light of thy divine knowledge, and open the eyes of our mind to the understanding of thy gospel teachings; implant in us also the fear of thy blessed commandments, that trampling down all carnal desires, we may enter upon a spiritual manner of living, both thinking and doing such things as are well-pleasing unto thee.

For thou art the Illumination of our souls and bodies, O Christ our God, and unto thee we ascribe glory, together with thine unoriginated Father and thine all-holy and good and life-giving Spirit, now and ever and unto ages of ages. Amen.
